

Creative writing

Imagine yourself in the shoes of O.W. Gurley! You have just acquired the land in Tulsa. You want Black people to buy plots and open businesses.

Write an advertisement telling people about this opportunity and why they should move to the new town of Greenwood.

Creative writing

You are a journalist and you have just visited Black Wall Street. You was excited and surprised to see such an area filled with thriving Black business and want to tell the world about how amazing it was.

Write a newspaper headline and story to describe and announce Black Wall Street to the world! Use the concepts you have learned from your coloring sheets in the article.

